IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
CR. WJC No.482 of 2008
REKHA DEVI
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR & ORS
---

6 20.8.2008 In the instant writ application the petitioner who is a Mukhia has prayed for quashing the criminal proceeding of Sare P.S. Case No.1/08 under sections 420 and 120(B) of the I.P.C.

Learned counsel submits that after observing proper procedure Anganbari Sevika and Anganbari Sahayika were selected for appointment. Learned counsel submits that the instant F.I.R. has been instituted on the ground of irregularities committed in selection which is in violation of clause 8 and 8(ka) of Margdarshika as contained in Annexure-6. He further submits that clause 8 of Margdarshika provides procedure for taking any step as to the irregularities and illegalities committed in course of selection of Anganbari Sewika and Anganbari Sahayika.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties I do not find it a fit case in which the criminal proceeding can be quashed.

However, it would be open for the petitioner to file application before an appropriate forum before charge sheet is submitted and cognizance is taken.

This writ application is disposed of with the aforesaid observation.
